NARRATIVE:

Carey Williams is a sex offender who has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include first degree murder, sexual penetration with a foreign object, possession of dangerous weapons, metal knuckles violation and resisting a peace officer. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 30 year term for first degree murder. Williams was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on August 19, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in December 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Williams qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for sexual penetration with a foreign object is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, sex offender status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
